FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Rock Hill/York County CVB will co-host the Queen City Athletic Association's largest basketball tournament in Fort Mill, SC this weekend

There will be 200 teams from various states throughout the southeast including teams from both Carolinas

The Rock Hill/York County Convention & Visitors Bureau (CVB) has teamed up with the Queen City Athletic Association (QCAA) to bring some premier basketball talent to York County, SC for The Rumble, May 19 - 21. This weekend, many of the games will be played at Fort Mill High School, Nation Ford High School, Fort Mill Middle School and Gold Hill Middle School.

The QCAA has hosted its largest basketball tournament, The Rumble in Charlotte, NC for the past 15 years. The growth of this tournament has reached max capacity of 200 teams coming from North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Virginia, Maryland, and other states throughout the southeast. Nearly 80 teams will play in the Fort Mill area schools.

Auvis Cole, interim executive director with the Rock Hill/York County CVB stated, "We are extremely excited to bring a large portion of the QCAA Rumble to York County, SC!" "This will be a great impact specifically to the Fort Mill area restaurants and attractions."

Two years ago, the Rock Hill/York County CVB made efforts to move some of the tournaments into York County.
